

Free Workshop on the Housing Crisis: Foreclosures & Avoiding Real Estate Fraud

Get informed & educated on the latest news

What does this crisis mean to you?

Homeowners – Are you in foreclosure? Struggling to make payments? Learn what you can do to protect your home. Find out what rights you have with your lender. And watch out for FORECLOSURE RESCUE SCAMS! Hear about scams that are out there.

Home-buyers – How do I avoid real estate scams or mortgage scams? Find out what kinds of scams there are targeting potential home-buyers.

Renters - What are your rights in foreclosed on homes? Make sure you know your rights before you move!

This workshop, led by Maeve Elise Brown from Housing and Economic Rights Advocates & David Lim from the District Attorney's Office, will arm you with the information you need to protect your home or to prepare to buy a home in the future.

For information and to RSVP, call (510) 278-0367.

Spanish speaking interpreters will be available.

SPONSORED BY

ALAMEDA COUNTY
Supervisor
Alice Lai-Bitker

AND

HERA

housing and economic rights advocates

AND

Saturday,
September
27th, 2008,
10:00 AM to 12 PM
San Leandro
Library
300 Estudillo Avenue,
San Leandro

KNOW YOUR RIGHTS

KNOW YOUR OPTIONS